

Bailey's Crossroads Rotary Club Hosts Awards Dinner

By DAVE BOROWSKI

J.E.B. Stuart High School scholarship recipients at the June 23 award dinner hosted by the Rotary Club of Bailey's Crossroads; (from left) Aditya Sridhar, Shireen Gharangik, Andrea Torrico, Bianca Cruz, Danielle O'Brien, Latha Pillai and Interact sponsor James Holcombe

The Rotary Club of Bailey's Crossroads honored six graduates and select staff of J.E.B. Stuart High School in Falls Church at an awards dinner held June 23 at the Harvest Moon Restaurant. Bailey's Crossroads (Immediate Past) President Roger Hoskin introduced the six graduating seniors who received Rotary scholarships of $1,000 each. "These winners were active Interactors who performed outstanding community service while consistently maintaining high academic standards." Awardees were: Bianca Cruz, Danielle O'Brien, Shireen Gharangik, Latha Pillai, Aditya Sridha, and Andrea Torrico.

Six J.E.B. Stuart teachers and staff were also recognized with award certificates and a check for $125 each for their leadership and service to the J.E.B Stuart community. Awardees were: Donald J. Balsavich, Korey Berg, Marcela Bojtos, Joy Fredericks, Stephanie Pickard and Judith Welling. Assistant principal Frank Brady and Interact sponsor and honorary Rotarian James Holcombe presented the awards to the J.E. B. Stuart staff. "Each teacher and staff member selected did something special for the school or for the Bailey's Crossroads Rotary Club," said Jim Holcombe.

Congratulations to all for demonstrated excellence, leadership, and service.

J.E.B. Stuart High School teacher recipients Rotary Club of Bailey's Crossroads awards: (from left) Donald Balsavich, assistant principal Frank Brady, Joyce Fredericks, Marcela Bojtos, Stephanie Pickard, Judith Welling and Interact sponsor James Holcombe. Not pictured Korey Berg.

